

Angel's Prayer Requests

CCP 2017

Sunday: That I would earnestly desire to grow in my faith and in my relationship with god. That my heart would be aligned with God's and that I would turn away from my selfish ambitions and pursue the Lord and his plan for me.

Monday: For my sister Cristina would turn away from the idols in her life and come to know the lord in a relationship that will satisfy her more than anything else in her life.

Tuesday: For team growth as a unit serving God. That we would stick to what we set for our team. Prayer as our fulcrum, Evangelize, Adapt and die to self, Closer to each and toward the gospel, Encourage and exhort one another.

Wednesday: The team's health. That our bodies would fight off infection maintain physical capacity despite the unfamiliar environment.

Thursday: That work done in the Philippines is fruitful. That God would raise up laborers that would become life-long servants of God and do so joyfully.

Friday: That the idols in my life are taken from me. That I may find joy, comfort, and faith in knowing of God's provision for me and what I can be taught through not having all the resources I do at home.

Saturday: For the people of Dumaguete that God may soften their hearts in preparation for CCP and the gospel. That the people will be eager to hear, discuss, and build relationships.
